

15th Consultation
European Network of Health Care Chaplaincy
Belgium, Blankenberge, 15-19 June 2018

PROGRAMME CONSULTATION

Nurturing Spirituality in Healthcare Chaplaincy

Friday June 15th

RECEPTION

14.00-17.30 in entrance hall Duinse Polders

17.30-18.30 in dining room: dinner

OPENING SESSION - Chair Simon Evers

19.00-20.15 in conference room 1+2: opening ceremony

- Simon Evers (ENHCC-ERICH, the Netherlands), Anne Vandenhoeck (KU Leuven-Academic Centre Practical Theology-ERICH, Belgium), Axel Liégeois (KU Leuven-Brothers of Charity, Belgium) & Bert Verbeke (Flemish Professional Association Chaplains, Belgium)

20.15-20.30 in conference room 1+2: drink

20.30-21.30 in conference room 1+2: introductory session

- Simon Evers, Introduction to ENHCC - networking

21.30 in bar: free time

Saturday June 16th

MORNING

7.30-8.00 in room 8: morning prayer

8.00-8.45 in dining room: breakfast

MORNING SESSION - Worldwide perspectives - Chair Axel Liégeois

9.00-10.30 in conference room 1&2: session 1 + together with Flemish Professional Association

- Cheryl Holmes (Spiritual Health Victoria, Australia), Finding our place: Spiritual care in Australian healthcare
- Daniel Grossoehme (Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, USA), A change in one changed the other: belief and practice in pediatric chaplaincy

10.30-11.00: coffee break + together with Flemish Professional Association

11.00-12.30 in conference room 1: session 2 – without Flemish Professional Association

- Anne Vandenhoeck (KU Leuven, Belgium), A match made in heaven? Spirituality and outcomes in spiritual care

- Exchange and panel discussion: Cheryl Homes, Daniel Grossoehme & Anne Vandenhoeck

12.30-13.30 in dining room: lunch + together with Flemish Professional Association

AFTERNOON SESSION - Biblical and personal perspectives - Chair Axel Liégeois

14.00-15.30 in conference room 1: session 3 – without Flemish Professional Association

- Martijn Steegen (KU Leuven, Belgium), Called to the impossible: stubborn and challenging Biblical narratives and the reflection on healthcare chaplaincy
- Interactive moment

15.30-16.00: coffee break + together with Flemish Professional Association

16.00-17.30 in conference room 1&2: session 4 + together with Flemish Professional Association

- Exchange in small groups per language

EVENING

17.30-18.30: free time

18.30-19.30 in dining room: dinner

EVENING SESSION - Research perspectives - Chair: Anne Vandenhoeck

20.00-21.00 in conference room 1&2: session 5

- Daniel Grossoehme (Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, USA), Qualitative research in healthcare chaplaincy

21.00 in bar: free time

Sunday June 17th

MORNING

7.30-8.00 in room 8: morning prayer

8.00-8.45 in dining room: breakfast

MORNING SESSION - European perspectives - Chair Karoliina Nikula

9.00-10.30 in conference room 1 + conference room 2: session 6

In conference room 1: papers personal perspective, moderator Anne Vandenhoeck

- Stavros Kofinas (Network Ecumenical Patriarchate for Pastoral Health Care, Greece), Spirituality and healthcare practices: Integrating the 'Forgotten Dimension'. Orthodox' view of nurturing spirituality
- Valerie Stessin (Association Spiritual Care, Israel), Inspiring new tunes for ancient Biblical verses

In conference room 2: papers case perspective, moderator Ewan Kelly

- Nika Höfler, Matthias Mißfeldt, Friederike Rüter & Traugott Roser (Westfälische Wilhelms Universität Münster, Germany), Describing effects of healthcare chaplaincy: a study in self-perception of chaplains' contribution to spiritual care
- Lindsay Desmet (KU Leuven, Belgium), Working with case studies: a way to professionalize and to discover a deeper spiritual awareness

10.30-11.00: coffee break

11.00-12.30 in conference room 1 + conference room 2: session 7

In conference room 1: papers diversity perspective, moderator Ewan Kelly

- Simon Harrison (College of Health Care Chaplains, UK), Broadening the roots: a key feature of nurturing spirituality in healthcare chaplaincy
- Carmen Schuhmann & Joanna Wojtkowiak (University of Humanistic Studies, the Netherlands), Spirituality in humanist chaplaincy: theoretical and empirical perspectives

In conference room 2: papers empirical perspective, moderator Anne Vandenhoeck

- Nico van der Leer (University of Humanistic Studies, the Netherlands), How qualitative research can foster the spirituality of the chaplain
- Annemie Dillen, Anne Vandenhoeck & Eveline Vanderheijden (KU Leuven, Belgium), Time pressure, chaplains' spirituality and ongoing formation

12.30-13.30 in dining room: lunch

AFTERNOON SESSION - Touristic visit in Bruges - Chair: Anne Vandenhoeck

13.30 at entrance hall Duinse Polders: appointment and departure

14.30 in Bruges: visit Beguinage, free touristic walk, H. Blood Chapel, Magdalene Church

18.30 in Bruges, Parking Bargeweg, near railway station: departure

19.15 arrival at Duinse Polders

EVENING

19.30-20.30 in dining room: dinner

EVENING SESSION - Network ENHCC - Chair Simon Evers

21.00-22.00 in conference room 1&2: session 8

- Simon Evers (ENHCC-ERICH, the Netherlands), Introduction to ENHCC - past-present-future

22.00 in bar: free time

Monday June 18th

MORNING

7.30-8.00 in room 8: morning prayer

8.00-8.45 in dining room: breakfast

MORNING SESSION - European perspectives - Chair: Siimon Haamer

9.00-10.30 in conference room 1 + conference room 2: session 9

In conference room 1: papers learning perspective, moderator Anne Vandenhoeck

- Niecky van Amerongen, Jannet Delver & Wim Smeets (Radboud Universitair Medisch Centrum Nijmegen, the Netherlands), Writing spiritual biography as contribution to spiritual awareness and taking position of spiritual caregivers
- Gudrun Rosen (Lutheran Church, Sweden), Supervision in teams: a way to cope with emotionally difficult experiences

In conference room 2: papers clinical perspective, moderator Ewan Kelly

- Daniel Nuzum (University College Cork, Ireland), Nurturing spirituality in healthcare chaplaincy education through Clinical Pastoral Education
- Corinna Schmohl (Katharinenhospital Stuttgart, Germany), A knowledge of non-feasibility and mystery of life and a sense of coherence

AFTERNOON SESSION - Visit care sector in Bruges

11.00 at entrance hall Duinse Polders: appointment and departure

- Visit Elderly Home Westervier, Bruges, guide Lindsay Desmet
- Visit General Hospital Sint-Lucas, Bruges, guide Anne Vandenhoeck
- Visit Psychiatric Centre Sint-Amandus, Beernem, guide Axel Liégeois
- Visit Facility for persons with disabilities, Gits, guide Bert Verbeke

15.30 arrival at Duinse Polders

CONCLUDING SESSION

16.00-17.30 in conference room 1&2: session 10

- Integration in small groups
- Final conclusion by Ewan Kelly (Scottish Episcopal Church Diocese of Glasgow and Galloway, United Kingdom)

EVENING

18.15: photo session

18.30-22.30 in dining room: festive dinner

22.30 in bar: free time

Tuesday June 19th

MORNING

7.30-8.00 in room 8: morning prayer

8.00-8.45 in dining room: breakfast

MORNING SESSION - Business meeting - Chair Simon Evers

9.00-10.30 in conference room 1&2: business session

10.30-11.00: coffee break

11.00-12.00 in conference room 1&2: closing ceremony

NOON

12.00-13.00 in dining room: lunch

13.00: Departures